

Geoffrey Drew Fuller

Assistant General Counsel
Battelle Memorial Institute

G. Drew Fuller is in-house counsel at Battelle Memorial Institute, a global research and development organization, where he serves as a strategic partner to the business and leads a team of attorneys and paralegals. Drew's practice touches nearly every area of the organization including major growth initiatives, government contracts, dispute resolution, litigation, acquisitions and divestitures, product development and commercialization, human resources and intellectual property. In addition, Drew serves on the Board of Directors for several Battelle subsidiaries. Drew is a graduate of Leadership Columbus (2015), and currently serves on the NetCare Foundation Board of Directors and on the Economics Advisory Board at the University of Dayton, his undergraduate alma mater. A graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Law, Drew resides in Dublin with his wife Jennifer and their children, Teddy and Vivienne.

