

Jennifer Spalding

Senior Vice President, General Counsel
Medical Segment
Cardinal Health

Jennifer is Senior Vice President, General Counsel of the Medical Segment of Cardinal Health, providing strategic legal advice designed to achieve global business objectives and leading a team of lawyers working closely with the segment's business units. She has extensive experience in complex licensing, advertising, healthcare compliance and crises management.

Prior to joining Cardinal Health, Jennifer was the head of health policy, reimbursement, managed care and strategic alliances for Abbott Nutrition, where she spent 15 years. Before being asked to lead health policy, she led the legal department for the division, helping the organization navigate the challenges of being both a healthcare and consumer goods company.

Jennifer previously was with the law firm of Squire Patton Boggs.

She received a bachelor's degree in Government from Centre College and earned a juris doctor degree from Capital University.

She and her husband, Sloan, live in New Albany, Ohio, and enjoy endless hours of watching their three sons' sporting events. Jennifer serves on the boards of National Church Residences and the New Albany Symphony Orchestra.

