

Jennifer Mountcastle

Associate General Counsel
& Vice President, Litigation
The Huntington National Bank

Jennifer Mountcastle is Associate General Counsel and Vice President at The Huntington National Bank, where she manages most of Huntington's defensive litigation docket and handles Huntington's litigation reporting. Prior to joining Huntington, Jennifer was a partner with the law firm of Thompson Hine in both its Columbus and Cleveland offices and in both its business litigation and product liability practice groups. In her product liability practice, she regularly defended product liability and personal injury claims involving commercial and consumer products, and also counseled clients about product warnings and labels. Her practice included considerable experience with class actions, mass torts, and other complex litigation. In her business litigation practice, she prosecuted and defended claims of breach of fiduciary duty, breach of contract, defamation, and theft of trade secrets. She has served as trial counsel in multi-million dollar cases and handled a number of appeals in both state and federal courts. In addition, Jennifer served in management at Thompson Hine as chair of the Lawyer Personnel Committee, which oversaw non-partner lawyer development, evaluation, and compensation. She was recognized as an Ohio Super Lawyer Rising Star on multiple occasions, as one of five Law360 Product Liability Rising Stars nationwide in 2012, and as a Benchmark Litigation Future Star in 2014. Jennifer was a member of the Leadership Columbus Class of 2013 and is a past member of the board of directors of Amethyst Inc. in Columbus, The Center for Community Solutions in Cleveland, and Teen Leadership Corps. in Huron, Ohio. Jennifer graduated cum laude from Bowling Green State University and received her law degree summa cum laude from Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. She resides in Powell, Ohio, with her husband and two daughters.

