

Michalea Delaveris

Associate
BakerHostetler

Michalea Delaveris is an Associate in BakerHostetler's Columbus office, with a law practice focused on all aspects of employee benefits and compensation. Michalea advises a broad range of employers on the unique regulatory and compliance challenges they encounter with respect to their retirement and health and welfare benefit plans, as well as in matters of executive compensation. Michalea is an active member of the Columbus community. She volunteers her legal services to several organizations, serves as a mentor through Franklin County Children's Services, and is a member of the board of the Women Lawyers of Franklin County. She is honored to speak with you about implicit bias and gender norms in the legal workplace, and the impact of directly confronting the issue through candid conversation within the industry.
