Director of Diversity and Inclusion
Frost Brown Todd LLC

Kim Amrine is a partner and the Director of Diversity and Inclusion at Frost Brown Todd. Kim has been with FBT since graduating from law school 17 years ago. She started at FBT as a business litigator and made partner in this role, even as the mother of two and as the spouse of a litigator. This past summer Kim celebrated her 10-year anniversary in her role as the firm's Director of Diversity and Inclusion at FBT. Her billable hour requirement is zero, meaning, Kim's primary responsibility is to ensure that FBT's commitment to diversity and inclusion are not just words in a glossy brochure or a mission on the website. She uses her passion, great resources and leadership support to ensure that the firm is constantly pushing the needle to improve in the areas of diversity and inclusion, and ultimately to promote a more inclusive work environment at Frost Brown Todd.
