

OWBA Presents 2017 Family Friendly Award to Squire Patton Boggs at Annual Meeting and Conference

Columbus, OH (May 2017) – On Friday, May 12th, the Ohio Women's Bar Association presented Squire Patton Boggs with the Family Friendly Award at the OWBA/OWBF Annual Meeting in Columbus, Ohio. The Family Friendly Award is presented as recognition of the firm's commitment to work-life balance in order to encourage lawyers to take care of their families while pursuing a successful career. Outgoing OWBA President Marilyn McClure-Demers presented the award to Karen Winters, Partner at Squire Patton Boggs and leader of their Environmental, Safety and Health Practice Group. Winters spoke briefly, on behalf of Squire Patton Boggs, to express their gratitude for receiving recognition from the OWBA.

The OWBA promotes leadership, advancement and interests of woman attorneys through professional education and networking. Since 2003 the OWBA has chosen a legal employer in Ohio that goes above and beyond to provide employees with an ideal work-life balance arrangement and to ensure that all lawyers are able to raise a family while leading a successful career. As the 2017 recipient of the Family Friendly Award, Squire Patton Boggs has proven their outstanding desire to promote the value of success in the family while succeeding in the career.

Squire Patton Boggs is an international commercial law firm that offers a range of business, commercial and corporate services throughout the world. The firm strives to promote a culture of equal participation, advancement and retention of women within a traditionally male-dominated profession. Squire Patton Boggs has implemented an organization within the firm, called Women's Enterprises, which is led by Carolyn Buller. This organization is comprised of multiple committees whose main focus is to assist the firm in attaining the overall goal of forming an appropriate work-life balance for all employees. The committees work to set goals of improvement, implement training and support for working mothers.

-end-

Media Contacts

Kimberly Fantaci
Executive Director
Ohio Women's Bar Association
(866) 932-6922
admin@owba.org