

Tiffany Schwartz

Attorney Advisor
Air Force Research Laboratory

Ms. Tiffany Schwartz is the attorney advisor to the Air Force Research Laboratory, advising the Air Force Small Business Innovation Research/Small Business Technology Transfer (SBIR/STTR) Center of Excellence, located within the Air Force Research Laboratory, Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Ohio. The Air Force SBIR/STTR Center of Excellence consolidates and streamlines research and development awards to small businesses with the goal of stimulating technical innovation to meet Air Force needs. Ms. Schwartz supports the SBIR/STTR Center of Excellence Director, Deputy Director, Chief of Contracting, Chief Financial Officer and other leadership in the execution of a more than $800M budget.

Prior to that, Ms. Schwartz was a supervisory attorney and Acquisition Fraud Counsel in the Procurement Fraud Division of the Air Force Materiel Command Law Office, an office that works 80 percent of the Air Force's significant procurement fraud cases. Tiffany has been with the Air Force since 2012.

Tiffany enjoys being active in her community. She is a Councilwoman for the City of Beavercreek, a board member of Kiwanis of Beavercreek and is Vice President of the Dayton Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. Additionally, she engages in pro bono work with the Greater Dayton Volunteer Lawyers Program and Pro Bono Partnership of Ohio.

Tiffany graduated from Ohio Northern University in 2010 with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice, Psychology and Sociology. After undergrad, she immediately pursued her law degree through the two-year, accelerated Juris Doctorate program at University of Dayton School of Law.
